A bidder may change his bid as often as he wishes but the last bid will be taken. These bids will be received until 8 o'clock, Monday night, September 24, 1906. Evans will telegraph the address of the winner and his figures to the Live Oak Bank, Live Oak, Florida. The highest bidder will go immediately and pay the amount over to the Live Oak Bank, Live Oak, Florida; or if the winner be not in Live Oak, Florida, he will immediately telegraph his money to the Live Oak Bank, Live Oak, Florida.

(3) As soon as the money is paid over, the Live Oak Bank will telegraph Mr. E. G. Evans at his expense. Mr. E. G. Evans will immediately telegraph an attorney at Live Oak, Fla., to make the transfer. Should the highest bidder show a disposition to delay action it may mean that he is not sincere, therefore after due course of time, the Bank would be telegraphed to drop the name and then the next highest name and amount would be sent to the bank.

When everything is agreeably settled, all bidders will be informed of their standing on the list and be heartily thanked for entering the con test. There will be no way for a bidder to find out from Mr. E. G. Evans what another has bid.
